We give any class of lettering, V Sun or raised, but recommend raised letters as more artistic. We sell monuments at San Francisco prices, and as a further inducement to purchase from us, we will give the full name, and the year of birth and death, beautifully carved in raised letters, in panel work, with frosted background, absolutely free. L. H. B. List of Buoys, etc., 12th Subdistrict, 1909, p. 16.

By order of the Commissioner of Lighthouses.

LEO SHAM.
Lieutenant, U. S. N.,
Inspector, 19th Light-House Dist.

While riding along on the trolley one day I fell in a sort of a dream. And the sights that I saw as the car sped along

Were the greatest I ever have seen. The Ad Sigas that blaze from the top of the car—

Each striving to capture more fame,—
Well, somehow the whole crowd became filled with life,
And they way the behaved was a shame.

The cute little girl who sits on Campbell's Soups
Threw her doll at the Quaker Oats Man;

She of course missed her aim, it struck full on the jaw.
Of the Coon slicing off Armour's Ham.

He grew excited; cut loose with his knife,
As his fighting blood started to boil.

Then the Chap who forever is showing his arm,
Passed the bottle of Omega Oil.

The Pettijohn Bear growled aloud at the noise,
As he made for the Fairy Soap Girl;

Then The Gold Twins upon his bear back,
And away they all went in a whirl.

Old Anty Drudge from her Fels-Naphtha sign,
Nearly fainted away in her fright.

Then she slipped and she fell on a Cottolene can,
Goodness gracious! but she was a sight.

Duff's "N. O." Molasses then started to run and escape from the horrible din;
But the Wooden Shoe Girls from a big Colgate,

Liked sweet things, so they gathered it in.
"Don't look so sour," said the Sanitol sign,

To a little Heinz Pickle so shy,
"Brace up, look around," said the Jap A Lac can,

To the Melin's Food Baby close by.
"This'll be a Town Talk!" exclaimed Mennen's Face,

"Hand Sapolio's chasing Jell-O,"
"There's a Reason," said Postum to Swift's Little Cook.

"Get in the fray! don't be slow,"
"Come, sit on my lap," said the Woodbury Man,

Then she jumped on a cake of white Ivory Soap,
Floated over, and was 'nt afraid.

"Let's eat an Nabisco!" yelled Sunny-Jim,
While the frolic was gaining in force;

"I see can Egg-O-See handing Calox some teeth,
So we'll chew as a matter of course,"

"Have one on me," said the Cream of Wheat Chef,
"This wild racket and tumult must cease,"

"Let it end up in a smoke," said the Cremo Cigar,
Then they all ate a dinner of peace.

The car gave a lurch, I awoke with a jump!
Consternation shown on my face:

For the car was the same as it was at the start,
Each sign was still in its place.

"There," exclaimed Major Harp up, pointing to a notice on an otherwise blank wall, "is a sentiment that I would like to see proclaimed in circus poster type over the doorway of every Post Office in the land." "What notice?" inquired his dull-witted companion.

"Why, that!" viciously rejoined the Major, pointing to the offending edict with his cane—"Post no Bills."

That "pamakani," a weed pest, threatens to play to the cattle industry what the Mediterranean fruit fly threatens to do to the fruit raisers, is a statement accredited to Supervisor R. A. Drummond, a prominent cattleman of Hana, Maui. The weed reported to be rapidly encroaching on Maui pasture lands and may eventually wipe out large tracts as far as cattle raising is concerned.
